Laudato Si' Quotes for reflection

"Praise be to you, my Lord, through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with coloured flowers and herbs..." (Laudato Si, 1).

"The divine and the human meet in the slightest detail in the seamless garment of God's creation, in the last speck of dust of our planet." (Laudato Si', 9).

"Nature is a magnificent book in which God speaks to us & grants us a glimpse of his infinite beauty and goodness. Rather than a problem to be solved, the world is a joyful mystery to be contemplated with gladness & praise" (Laudato Si', 12).

"St. Francis asked that part of the friary garden always be left untouched so that wild flowers and herbs could grow there, and those who saw them could raise their minds to God, the Creator of such beauty." (Laudato Si', 12).

"The entire material universe speaks of God's love, God's boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is a caress of God." (Laudato Si', 84).

"The history of our friendship with God is always linked to particular places which take on an intensely personal meaning; we all remember places, and revisiting those memories does us much good. Anyone who has grown up in the hills or used to sit by the spring to drink, or played outdoors in the neighbourhood square; going back to these places is a chance to recover something of their true selves." (Laudato Si'. 84).

"God has written a precious book, whose letters are the multitude of created things. From panoramic vistas to the tiniest living form, nature is a constant source of wonder and awe. It is also a continuing revelation of the divine. Alongside revelation in sacred Scripture, there is a divine manifestation in the blaze of the sun and the fall of night." (Laudato Si', 85).

"This contemplation of creation allows us to discover in each thing a teaching which God wishes to hand on to us, since "for the believer, to contemplate creation is to hear a message, to listen to a paradoxical and silent voice." (Laudato Si'. 85).

"Nature is God's art (Laudato Si', 80, quoting Thomas Aquinas).

"What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?" (LS, 160).

"The universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely. Hence, there is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person's face. Standing awestruck before a mountain, we cannot separate this experience from God" (Laudato Si', 233).
