The Eucharist is our call to action

Our experience over these past couple of years have taken us through great highs and lows, as we have battled the pandemic and the horror of war on our doorstep. Our liturgical calendar reflects this great adventure as we walked with Jesus through Holy Week, torture, death, Resurrection, Ascension, and Pentecost. Even in the midst of suffering Jesus can cry from the cross, 'Father, you must forgive them, they are your Children. You must forgive them; they don't know what they are doing' and then Jesus died. The very last thing Jesus says to his Father is forgive, forgive, forgive, forgive. There is nothing in God except forgiving. The Eucharist is the ultimate act of remembrance, as we follow what Jesus said and did in our own lives. Our eucharist is not an assembly of those who have done well during the week and need to be rewarded. The Eucharist is needed food for our journey of life: we taste and see how good the Lord is in our lives.

Watch and Pray with Gaza

Over the next two Fridays, starting this Friday 20th June, from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. Irish time (the hour when the Jewish sabbath begins in Jerusalem), The Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy invite you to light a candle and gather to watch and Pray with the people of Gaza and we ask you to bring their suffering before the loving God of Mercy whose compassion knows no bounds even in the face of our inhumanity to each other.

Trusting in the power of the Spirit granted to us this Pentecost, we will keep watch with our suffering brothers, sisters and all life forms until the Feast of the Sacred Heart on Friday 27th June when we will entrust them to the tender love of Jesus in hope and confidence that the peace and justice of God are near.
