Come Holy Spirit, Fill The Hearts Of The Faithful

In this morning's gospel reading Jesus says to his disciples, 'the Advocate, Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you.' It is the evening before Jesus is put to death; his disciples are aware that Jesus is taking his leave of them. In that highly charged hour Jesus assures them that his leaving them, his death, will not be the end of his relationship with them. He will send the Holy Spirit from the Father who will remind them of all Jesus said to them. Jesus' relationship with them will endure in and through the Holy Spirit. Jesus is present to all of us, within all of us, in and through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit brings Jesus to us today and brings us to Jesus. That is why we need to keep on praying, 'Come Holy Spirit, fill my heart.' We keep asking the Spirit we have already received to keep on filling us more and more, filling our thoughts, words, deeds, filling our very being, so that our relationship with the Lord will continue to deepen.
