Visits to the Sick & Housebound: As there is confirmation on 4th March, I will not be visiting the sick & housebound on Thursday 2nd and Friday 3rd March. I will visit them instead on this coming Thursday 23rd February and Friday 24th February. Please let them know that I will be coming this week.

Parish Mission: The parish Mission takes place from Sunday 2nd April—Friday 7th April. On Sunday 3rd April there will be Mass in the Community Centre, Cloone for all who are aged and all in need of physical healing, emotional healing and spiritual healing. It will incorporate the Sacrament of the sick for everyone who wants to avail of it. Transport can be arranged if necessary. Please contact Fr. Peter Tiernan if you need transport. All are welcome. On the final night, Friday 7th, there will be a celebration of all the organisations and associations that breathe life into the communities in Aughavas and Cloone. Members of the Pastoral Councils and Members of the Mission Committee have been approaching members of these organisations and associations with a view to participating in this celebration. The form with names of those participating are due to be given to Fr. P. Tiernan by Wednesday 22nd February or put through the door of the Parish House in Cloone.
