Reasons for Life

*I don't know how to say it, but somehow it seems to me, that maybe we are stationed where God wants us to be;
That the little place I'm filling is the reason for my birth, and just to do the work I do, God sent me down on earth.*

*And, since God knows and understands all things of land and sea,
God placed me here, just where God wanted me.
Sometimes, I get thinking, as my labours I review, that I should like a higher place with greater things to do, but I come to the conclusion, when the envying is stilled, that the post to which God sent me is the post he wanted filled.*

*So, I plod along and struggle, in the hope, when day is through, that I'm really necessary to the things God wants to do.
And there isn't any service I can give, which I should scorn.
For it may be just the reason God allowed, that I be born.*
