Reflection

We are workers. It helps now and then to take a step back
And take a long view.
The Kingdom is not only beyond our efforts,
It is even beyond our vision.

We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work.
Nothing we do is complete, which is another way of saying
That the kingdom always lies beyond us.
No statement says all that can be said.
No prayer fully expresses our faith.
No confession brings perfection.
No programme accomplishes the Church's mission.
No set of goals and objectives includes everything.

This is what we are about.
We plant the seeds that one day will grow.
We water seeds that are already planted,
Knowing that they hold future promise.

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense
Of liberation in realising that.
This enables us to do something and do it well.
It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way,
An opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest.
We may never see the end results,
But that is the difference between the Master builder and worker.
We are workers and not Master builders, ministers, not messiahs.
We are prophets of a future not our own.

John of the Cross – Prayer

O God make me brave,
Let me strengthen after pain
As a tree strengthens after rain
Shining and lovely again.

As the blown grass lifts,
Let me rise from sorrow
With quiet eyes
Knowing the way is wise.

God make me braver,
Life brings such blinding things.
Help me keep you in sight
Knowing all through the night
That out of darkness,
Comes light.

John of the Cross
