Third Sunday of Easter — April 18, 2021: “We can be sure we know God only by keeping his commandments” Jesus makes Himself known to you through the vocation He chose for you. Do you hear a call to the priesthood or consecrated life? Speak to your local priest or Diocesan Vocations Director, or email the National Vocations Office: info@vocations.ie

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel (John 20:19-31) :

1. ‘Peace be with you’ was the greeting of Jesus on meeting his frightened apostles. Who has come to you bringing peace at times when you were afraid? To whom have you been able to turn?
2. Thomas, doubting and questioning, is possibly a person with whom we can identify. What positive part have doubting and questioning played in your life? How have such moments helped you to know that your life is worthwhile? How have questions and doubts strengthened your faith?
3. Note the way that Jesus dealt with Thomas. He did not give out because Thomas doubted. He accepted how Thomas felt, and led him along to see the truth of the resurrection. Who has been that kind of teacher for you, gently meeting you where you were and leading you to a deeper knowledge of some truth about life? For whom have you been that kind of teacher?
4. ‘Blessed are they who have not seen and yet believed’. That requires great trust. Perhaps you have had the experience of being trusted without having to justify every step along the way. What was it like to be trusted in that way? Who have you been able to trust in a similar manner?

Dream of Earth

Spring in April now
 You smile at us
 In every bloom
 On every bough

Trusted limits break
 Let us down
 Through death new life
 New spirit found

In every flower-blade
 Leaf and tree
 In every song
 Hum of bee

Released from pond
 Dragonfly will creep
 On wings of light
 Awakens dream of earth

In every new surprise
 Colour, shade
 Rainbow pastels
 Prayer room wall inlaid

Released from body
 Spirits soar
 Heart-imagination
 Longs for more

Stained glass windows
 Stories tell
 From new mown lawn
 A fragrant smell

Than yet is known
 Earthbound un-free
 Death’s severed cord
 Gives new eyes to see

Life from death
 For all the world to see
 New heart from grief
 Bereavement longs to feel

The dream of earth
 Unfurl in every season
 Easter celebrates new life
 With Christian meaning

In a letter St. Paul wrote to the people of Collosae he said:- The fullness of divine nature lives in Christ, in his humanity, and you have been given full life in union with him. For when you were baptized, you were buried with Christ, and in baptism you were also raised with Christ through your faith in the active power of God who raised him from death.
