Ash Wednesday: Wednesday next, 5th March is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of lent. It is a day of Prayer, Fast and Abstinence when we are forbidden to eat flesh meat. Lent challenges us to reflect on where our life is heading. Taking ashes on the forehead is a sign that one is going to do something special for lent: maybe self-denial, more time for prayer, daily Mass, a contribution to the poor. As the ashes are blessed, we pray for the strengthening of those who receive them.

Trocaire Boxes will be available in the porches of both churches on Ash Wednesday. Please bring one home with you.
