12th Aug. 2012

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We continue with John's deep reflection on the miracle of the loaves and fishes. In today's readings we are drawn up to the level of believing that in the Blessed Eucharist Christ gives us his flesh to eat for the life of the world.

Wednesday 15th August '12 is the feast of the assumption of Our Lady. It is a holyday of obligation.

Cemetery Sunday Masses 2012: Cemetery Sunday Mass will be in Aughavas on this Sunday 12th August at 11.30 am. The graves will be Blessed immediately after mass.

A Collection for the upkeep of the graveyards will be taken up at the Cemetery Gates. The Collection will be given to the Fás Scheme to help them in their very good work in keeping the graveyards so well. The collection is more important this year as there has been a reduction in the Fás materials grant.

In the 1st reading today Elijah wants to give up. But at the Angel's invitation he gets up to eat and strengthened by that food from heaven he continues his journey.

An Anonymous poem, Don't quit, is surely relevant for the present times.

'When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you are trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit'.

In our struggles, like Elijah, Jesus nourishes us for the journey, in the Eucharist.

Offertory Collection: Aughavas €445.00 Cloone €1,400.00
