Q. What do you mean by saying that mass is a rehearsal of heaven?

A. It is only in the full beatific vision of God in heaven that the perfect praise of God can take place. The wonder of the Eucharist is that we are invited to 'do this in memory of Jesus', that is, to lift up our hearts in joining with him in his return to the Father through the door of death, into his resurrection and ascension.

We offer all honour and glory through Jesus (as mediator between earth and heaven), with him (as brother in our humanity) and in him (as members of his body). Therefore what happens at mass is an anticipation of the perfect praise which belongs to heaven.
