To lift up the hands in prayer gives glory to God, but a man with a dung-fork in his hand, a woman with a sloppail, gives him glory too. He is so great that all things give him glory if you mean they should.

‘Time is

— too slow for those who wait

— too swift for those who fear

— too long for those who grieve

— too short for those who rejoice

— but for those who love, time is eternity. (Henry Van Dyke)

’For God so loved the world that he gave his only son’

The Alexian Brothers’ Prayer to Christ the Healer:

In the comfort of your love,

I pour out to you, my Saviour,

the memories that haunt me,

the anxieties that perplex me,

the fears that stifle me,

the sickness that prevails upon me,

and the frustration of all the pain

that weaves about within me.

Lord, help me to see your peace in my turmoil,

Your compassion in my sorrow,

Your forgiveness in my weakness,

And, Your love in my need.

Touch me, O Lord, with your healing power and strength.

Message from Bishop Colm O'Reilly:

The first anniversary of the publication of the Pastoral Letter of Pope Benedict XVII to the Catholics of Ireland occurs on 19th March 2011. To mark this anniversary Irish bishops wish to bring the following three important initiatives to the attention of the faithful: the publication of their pastoral response Towards Healing and Renewal; the new Catholic counselling and support service for survivors of abuse; and, the progress of listening and consultation exercises which have been taking place.

To mark this first anniversary bishops have published the pastoral response Towards Healing and Renewal. This outlines different undertakings that the bishops are making on the journey emphasised by the survivors of abuse.

These steps include: Prayer for the Survivors of Abuse, including a commitment on the part of bishops to dedicate each First Friday to prayer and fasting in reparation for abuse and the failure to address it adequately; a commitment to listening with sensitivity and care to the experiences of those who suffered abuse; spiritual support to survivors of abuse who wish to avail themselves of it, including the opportunity for spiritual direction; ongoing commitment to creating a safer future for children in the Church in accordance with Safeguarding Children; a review of Dioceses, Religious Congregations and Societies by the National Board for Safeguarding Children; and ongoing financial support for the work of safeguarding and care.

Towards Healing and Renewal also includes ways in which parish communities can play their part in assisting the process of healing for survivors of abuse. In February 2011 bishops, the Conference of Religious of Ireland and the Irish Missionary Union have launched a new Catholic counselling and support service. This counselling service, which continues the important work of Faoiseamh, supports survivors of abuse in a professional and caring environment by providing a wide range of services, including Helpline and face-to-face Counselling. Healing Meetings, Group Work, Practical Workshops and a Social Worker/Bridging service designed to link survivors of abuse to other services relevant to their needs, such as the health, local authority, educational and social welfare services.

Over the last year, and prompted by Pope Benedict's Pastoral Letter, listening and consultation exercises have been taking place in dioceses. These are continuing and are an important step on the journey of healing and renewal for the Church in Ireland.
