TWENTY—FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

'The door is narrow'. So are the goalposts and the golf hole. The ancient Greek word for sin meant missing the target. The accurate free-taker must focus vision and eliminate distractions.

In pursuit of being liberal and broadminded many are missing the target.

It is significant that in this broadminded age that we are hearing so much about boredom, inertia and depression. It has much to do with the absence of commitment to a clear purpose in life.

In Jesus, there is a future worth striving for with purpose and commitment. It is open to everybody and is not confined to any select circle.

Pray for the happy repose of the soul of Sr. Helen Brennan, New York, sister of the late Mike Joe Brennan Cornulla who died last Wednesday in New York. Mass this Saturday evening in St. Mary's Cloone at 8.00 pm
